

DOLE'S PURE Hawaiian Pineapple Juice

In the Sick Room

The absolute purity of Dole's Pure Hawaiian Pineapple Juice makes its use especially valuable in the sick room, and while, in acute disorders, the advice of attending physician should always be sought, yet in many of the common forms of indisposition the craving for refreshing fruit beverage clearly indicates a pure fruit juice of nature's own blending.

The pineapple belongs to the air-plant family, and the juice of the pineapple fruit, composed almost wholly of matter derived from the sun and atmosphere, is the purest imaginable. In fever convalescence, Dole's Pineapple Juice is invaluable, being readily sustained by delicate stomachs. In sore throat and other colds of a membranous nature, a glass of hot Pineapple Juice at intervals of two or three hours, gives pronounced relief. Per bottle,

Police Chief Suspended.
San Francisco, Cal., May 26.—Chief of police John F. Seymour was suspended from duty by the board of police, pending trial on charges of unbecomingly conduct. Captain of detectives E. R. Wall was appointed acting chief. The formal complaint charged Seymour, among other things, with having permitted the open operation of a number of gambling houses and with having caused dissension in the department by bringing charges against some of the officials.
